

If we are a good person, we have a good _____ and a good _____.

Our attitude is more a reflection of our _____ than our _____.

What are the major determinants of personality?

What are the main determinants of character?

What makes us who we are?

Do our memories and experiences have anything to do with who we are?

Does our birth or our parents have anything to do with who we are?

What about our genes?

When our spirit is regenerated, does that change who we are?

What does the soul represent?

